Cartier Panthère De Cartier Watches Hands-On | aBlogtoWatch Although the Cartier Panthère volume collection was created in 1983, Cartier has been making jeweled Panther-themed watches since even before it created the Santos watch in 1904 – the only men who were wearing wristwatches at the time were soldiers in the South African Boer War, and that was because Africa's climate was too hot for a waist coat, where a man's pocket watch is properly kept. Introducing The Cartier Panthère De Cartier Collection, Re ... The panther was first used in a watercolor painting commissioned by Louis Cartier back in 1914 (Woman With A Panther, by George Barbier) and Mr. Cartier liked the image so much that it soon became the symbol of the brand; later in 1914 the first "Panther" piece was produced by Cartier – which was a bracelet watch, set with onyx and diamonds.
